MAKOL CABLES

are the only answer for trouble free efficiency and complete freedom of action, and this has been confirmed time and time again by the Police, the Military, Racing Motorcyclists and the every day rider.

MAKOL CABLES are anti-friction processed and need no lubrication during their life. They are strong and well constructed, tested before leaving the works, and are capable of withstanding the most stringent demands that are likely to be made upon them.

STOCK MAKOL—They sell themselves.

MOPED-MINDED BRITAIN

Ankermatic mopeds will be 'on the move' in Britain in ever increasing numbers during the months and years ahead. As the long-established Continental fashion for this form of personal transport becomes more and more the fashion in this country, too, so this latest fuel-injected, automatic lightweight from Holland — the home of two-wheelers — will become the household word for moped in the U.K.
