Excelsior

The World's Leading Lightweights

The Universal 125 c.c., internationally famed for reliability, stamina and economical running. You can rely on Excelsior . . . the world's leading Lightweight.

Sturdily constructed, easy to handle, an Excelsior is a safe choice for the discriminating rider. There's power and speed too, when you need it—and economical running with complete reliability that puts Excelsior in the forefront of lightweight motor cycles. Look out for the new Excelsior Minor 98 c.c.—the latest addition to an already famous range.

The Super Autobyk—Leader of its class! Three models to choose from, each with individual features.
