Messrs. The Scottish Tyre, Ltd., Glasgow, have three special lines coming on for the 1907 season; these are Scottish Victor cycle tyres, made by the Doughty patent process; Edinburgh tyres, made by the same process; and Edinburgh beaded-edge tyres, machine-moulded, with universal beads suited for rims 28 by 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ in., 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ in., and 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. The company will not be exhibiting at the Stanley Show.

and the reduction on to the low is equivalent to 25 per cent.

Since the sole selling rights of the Scottish Tyre, Ltd., were acquired by the Dunlop Co., the management of the Scottish Tyre has been inundated with pleasant communications from agents in all parts of the country. The Scottish Tyre business owed its goodwill in the early days entirely to the sound connection with the agents, and it will be remembered that the Scottish Co. was one of the first to join and support the C. and A.T.A.
