 JUNIOR
Safetyfirst
TRAINER

★ Children can now become "veteran motorists" long before they have to take the test.

Really safe. A scaled-down motor car reproducing the controls of a full-sized car in a form which children can easily master. Grown-ups as well as children can train to drive on it. For use in private gardens, school playgrounds, camps, etc.

Every Atco Trainer is supplied with a 68-page text book on driving and the mechanism of the internal combustion engine.

The new Atco Junior Safetyfirst Trainer makes it practicable for every British-born child to have organised training in the schools and homes of the Empire.

An original product dedicated to the cause of substantial road-accident reduction and to the achievement through existing educational channels of a Nation second-to-none in this mechanised world.
