Salute Garelli!

Garelli is the Italian moped. The blend of classic design, motor craftsmanship and rugged good looks couldn't be anything else.

In Italy narrow winding roads, incredible traffic jams and Italian driving habits demand a lot from a moped. Italians trust three generations of Garelli engineering heritage for agile performance, mechanical reliability and superb road holding in a moped. Garelli delivers it.

They also demand a lot of miles from a gallon of petrol. And Garelli doesn't disappoint them. Garelli fuel economy is legendary.

Here in the U.K. there's a Garelli dealer nearby who'd be happy to demonstrate what getting there Italian Style could do for you.
