PEUGEOT 104 AUTOMATIC

With only three controls - no clutch to operate - it's no wonder that there is strong rivalry between 'him' and 'her' where this moped is concerned! Lightweight all steel construction and smooth styling combine the best of both moped and scooter. Here is economy for workaday - and holiday time riding that shows with every journey that you ever want to make. So make it PEUGEOT - complete with automatic clutch and transmission, dual seat, speedometer with leg shields fitted standard - undersealed for life - the price is £89.18s. (inc. P.T.) or 10% deposit.
