RALEIGH CYCLES.

In August, 1905, the Touring Club of France awarded an artistic Silver Medal, of which the following is an illustration, to the Raleigh Co., as a testimonial to the general excellence of their Cycle fitted with the Sturmey-Archer three-speed gear, with which an English Amateur had that month in 22 hours ridden four times over three mountains in the Alps, covering 149 miles, of which 74 miles were uphill without any level road, the average rise being 1 in 15, and the total height mounted 26,120 feet, or nearly 5 miles. Any Raleigh may of course be fitted with the Sturmey-Archer three-speed gear, but we specially call attention to our new Three-Speed models at £10 : 10 : 0, by Twelve Monthly Payments, without extra charge. 10 per cent. discount for cash. Write to us for particulars.
