

September 22, 1937. MOTOR CYCLING

Raynal Auto

21

Raynal Manufacturing Co., Ltd.,
 Woodburn Road, Handsworth,
 Birmingham.

FOUR machines are exhibited on Stand 21, but they are all basically of the same type.

The job is a power-assisted bicycle of 98 c.c., the unit being neatly and rigidly housed in a strong frame. Everything seems to be built for long service, and the price of £18 18s. seems very reasonable.

Another very interesting light-weight—the Raynal Auto, which costs only £18 18s.

Incidentally, a very simple, yet clever, type of front fork is fitted to the Raynal Auto, providing a high degree of comfort.