

TRIUMPH'S NEW MODELS will set New High Standard

A NUMBER of attractive new models are included in the 1939 range of Triumph cycles, and specifications of a number of existing models have been revised. 1938 prices are being maintained where specifications are unchanged. Six new models have been introduced at prices varying from £4 19s. 6d. to £6 12s. 6d., and all will Model 10, price £5 10s.0d.

velox 3-speed A1; mudguards, white or black celluloid; saddle, leather racing or spring seat; finish, bonderised, rust-proofed, enamelled black; accessories, Holdall tool bag, spanners and oil-can.

Model JC, price £6 12s.6d.

will appeal to the connoisseur have been introduced for the new season, and the colour schemes of these models leave nothing to be desired.

Typical example of the Triumph sports machines is model T.V. 10, the "Sports Club," which has now been reduced to £6 19s. 6d. Four frame sizes are available, entirely brazed up with cutaway and fish-tailed head lugs, and brazed-on pump pegs. It is a short wheel-

Model H, price £6 19s.6d.

There are four tandems in the Triumph range. The model TDMTV, priced at £15 3s., is a typical example, and the specification is as follows: frame, 21 in. 20½ in., "A" quality butted tubing, brazed seat lugs; forks, D to round, solid ends, chromium plated, heavy butted steering stem; wheels, 26 in. x 1 3-8 in., Endrick tandem, chromium plated, centred, and lined; tyres, Dunlop tandem; handlebars, Lauterwasser on 2-in. straight extension (front), North Road drop (rear), "T" seat, and handlebar pillar; brakes, internal expanding hub, front and rear; pedals, rat-trap; gear, Trivelox 3-speed; saddles, Brooks or Terry, C.T.C.; finish, rust-proofed by Coslett process, enamelled black, bright parts chromium plated; accessories, Hold-all tool-bag, spanner, and Tecaletit lubrication.

There are a number of better class models at prices from £10 17s. 6d. for the new Continental, to £15 18s. for model TDMLTV.

Model TV, price £6 19s.6d.

be displayed on the Triumph stand at the Earls Court Cycle Show.

Special features of these models are the standard fork crown, D to round fork blades, dome guards, yoke and hinge brakework.

On the original Triumph models, Resilient forks, dome crown, special Triumph brakework, and Imperial guards are being maintained.

Three new racing models which Model CTG, price £6 19s.6d.

base model. Forks are of the Russ type, with lamp-bracket lug brazed on; Triumph Resilient are available if desired.

The remainder of the specification is as follows: Wheels, 26 in. x 1¼ in., Endrick; tyres, Dunlop Sports; handlebars, Lauterwasser or Highgate shallow; brakes, Whitmill calliper front and rear; pedals, superior fishtail rat-trap; chain-wheel, 46T 6½ in., cranks; gears, Tri-

Model CM, price £5 10s.0d.

NEW S.W. ESSEX LEAGUE

The Valentines' S.C. (Ilford) has suggested forming a league for darts and table tennis in the Ilford-Brentwood-Romford and Dagenham areas. It has so far met with good support. The Dagenham R.C.—Romford S.C.—Brentwood S.C. are

★ THE NEW MONITOR

"POWER BLIP"